ABOUT ME

Sound designer and sound recording technician with a background in audiovisual media, music, theater, branding, and video game projects. Experienced in live sound operation, audio recording, post-production, technical production, and education. Passionate about sound design, music, and composition for interactive media and audiovisual productions. I believe that combining sound narrative, high-quality audio, and strong technical judgment throughout the post-production process can enhance creative expression and create meaningful connections with audiences.
